

COLEMAN MINER

Volume 2, No. 24

Coleman, Alberta, Friday, June 18, 1909

$2 00 Yearly

The Palm

The Palm is the place to get all kinds of fresh Fruit and Vegetables.

We serve
Strawberries and
Cream, Ice Cream
Sodas and all kinds of Soft Drinks.

Ice Cream, Wholesale and Retail

W. L. Bridgeford

The Pastime Pool Room

Is the place to spend your leisure hours. All admit that more pleasure is derived from a game of Pool or Billiards than any other indoor amusement.

We stock the highest grades of imported Cigars and Cigarettes. Our line of Pipes, Tobaccos and smokers sundries is complete.

We solicit a share of your patronage.

Alex. Morrison & Co.

DR. JOHN WESTWOOD

Physician and Surgeon
Office: Miners Union Hospital, 2nd Street
Hours: 9-10 a.m. 4-5 and 7-8 p.m.

Some "Iffs" (If you come our way we will send overflowing values your way.) If you leave a $ with us it is sure to change the money for its equivalent in jewelry certainties. What we give you will be as sound and genuine as the money. If you are a careful spender, still keep your money on the score of economy. This is a good place to come. It is a good place to come to even if you think that makes one store better than another. Glad to greet you at any time.

Alex. Cameron

Watchmaker, Optician
and Issuer of Marriage Licenses

T. Ede

BARRISTER, NOTARY PUBLIC

Alberta

E. Disney

Contractor and Builder

Brick, Lime, Hard Wall
Plaster, Coast Flooring,
Mouldings, Doors and Windows always on hand.

Cumber of all Kinds

COLEMAN JOTTINGS

Happenings of Interest in and Around This Bustling Town.

You Are Talked About

We shall thank our readers for all items of interest which they may be able to furnish us for publication. Phone 66A, P.O. Box 15.

Read the Blairmore Cafe's ad.

Mrs. D. J. Hill was at Frank on Tuesday.

F. Coles of Olds came to Coleman on Saturday.

N. B. Finn returned from Calgary on Sunday.

Edward Holmes spent Tuesday at Lethbridge.

A. W. Bussell was up from Macleod on Tuesday.

D. F. Hughes of Crows Nest was in town yesterday.

J. B. Wilkie came up from Lethbridge on Thursday.

Wm. Lovatt came in from Burton B.C., on Saturday.

P. J. Simmonds of Calgary was doing business in town this week.

Mrs. (Rev.) T. M. Murray visited friends at Lillooet on Monday.

Thomas Edey came to Coleman from Lethbridge yesterday.

James Burrows and wife of Hillcrest visited Coleman on Tuesday.

BORN.—On 11th inst., to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Morrison, a son.

C. Hiscocks, the "41" man, came up from Pincher Creek on Tuesday.

Dr. Westwood returned from a short visit to Fernie on Wednesday.

Byron E. Sharp and wife of Spokane, Wash., were in town on Sunday.

Note the change of reduced passage rate in the C. P. R. ad. elsewhere in this issue.

E. Disney keeps chloride of lime suitable for sanitary and disinfecting purposes.

J. F. Armstrong, real estate agent of Michel, was doing business in town yesterday.

Rev. A. E. H. Bott of Fishburn conducted Divine services in the C. of E. church here on Sunday last.

William Chalmers who has been sick at the hospital for several days is now able to get around again.

O. S. Whiteside went to Macleod last night to attend a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association.

To put it mild, the I. O. O. F. convention which will be held at Pincher Creek, on July 21st, will be a high affair.

Frank Partridge returned to Coleman on Tuesday and has taken his old position as day operator at the C.P.R. today.

Mrs. J. F. Povah, returned to town on Tuesday night last by the fiver, after spending the last seven months at Spokane, Wash.

MARRIED.—At the home of W. G. Smith, Bellevue, on 18 inst., by the Rev. T. M. Murray, James McQueen to Miss Carie Bunc, both of Bellevue.

It is true that the general appearance of Coleman is rapidly improving, but if we had more buildings like that of E. Disney's Coleman would look still better.

The Coleman Lodge of I. O. O. F. has just issued some very nice and neat cheques, printed in green and red ink. The Odd Fellows are to be congratulated. It is hardly necessary to say that the work was done at the best office.

We are not at all surprised at passenger going west when on reaching this town and after seeing the many new buildings, enquire if this is Fernie building up after the fire. Of course Fernie is somewhat larger than Coleman.

"Paradise," formerly known as the "C. P. H. Mess" was broken up on the 16th. The cook, Tom Ginn, goes to China and Alex. McLean goes back to his ranch while the other boys are distributed amongst the different hotels. It was named "paradise" because there were no women there.

The Stikre Situation Is Still Unchanged-- Cannot Agree

As we go to press the strike remains unsettled. The conciliation board made a majority and minority finding at a sitting of the said board at Fernie on Tuesday last. Rev. H. R. Grant and F. H. Sherman made a finding at the meeting held on Tuesday last which excludes the closed shop principle and discrimination clauses and recommended the old agreement. The operators' representative, Colin Macleod, made a report which differed from that of Grant and Sherman's but in what particular is not known.

The board expects to meet at Fernie again tomorrow when it is hoped that they will arrive at a finding which will be satisfactory to all the members.

A meeting of the Western Coal Operators association is being held at Macleod today. O. S. Whiteside and H. N. Galer have gone down from Coleman to attend that meeting.

The board expects to meet at Fernie again tomorrow when it is hoped that they will arrive at a finding which will be satisfactory to all the members.

The following officers were elected:

James McNeill, president; Alex. Morrison, vice-president; B. M. Stitt, sec-treas.; A. McGinnis, captain; H. Ellis, manager; H. Higgins, H. Sellers, and Alex. Morrison, finance committee.

H. Sellers informed those present that upwards of two hundred dollars had been collected for the use of the league. This was very gratifying and all present were well pleased with the keen interest manifested by those who were approached for financial help. Following is the subscription list:

Mutz & McNeil, $25.00; Alex. Morrison, O. E. S. Whiteside and Loyd A. Manly, $10.00 each; Cole Mercantile, A. J. White, P. Burns & Co., H. A. Parks, F. G. Graham, Alex. Cameron, W. L. Ouimet, D. J. Hill, H. Villeneuve, B. R. Buchanan, J. F. Povah and the Coleman Miner, $5.00 each; C. P. Willmott and R. Sherwood, $2.50 each; A. J. Blais, Louis Schorn, R. Hoggett, Malcolm Morrison, W. S. Bosworth, W. L. Bridgeford, E. Morino, Wm. Evans, Alex. Easton and T. B. Smith, $2.00 each; H. S. John Solus, Foo Goeey, W. T. Oswin, V. Thompsons, W. G. Wilson, Wm. Eastley and Joseph Choy, $1.00 each.

The members accompanied by the Coleman brass band will parade to the cemetery where a service will be held and the graves of the departed members decorated with flowers.

WILL HOLD ANNUAL SERVICE ON JUNE 27

The Coleman Lodge of I. O. O. F. and Victoria Rebekah lodge will hold their annual decoration service on Sunday, June 27th.

The members accompanied by the Coleman brass band will parade to the cemetery where a service will be held and the graves of the departed members decorated with flowers.

Additional Coleman Locals

Russell Ferguson came down from Fernie last night.

Harry Sellers has men engaged painting the exterior of the Coleman hotel.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

H. N. Galer, who was in town yesterday, is attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators association which is being held at Macleod today.

E. Disney expects to have his new and attractive residence ready for occupying about the last of this month when Mrs. Disney and family will arrive.

The gentlemen of Blairmore will give an informal dance in the opera house here on Friday evening next.

Miss Tiverton's Tea Basket.

By ALICIA SPRAGUE.

Copyrighted, 1899, by Associated Literary Press.

Miss Tiverton always poured tea at precisely 3 o'clock in the afternoon for a select circle of feminine friends.

The tea was served in the drawing room so that those who were married might get home in time to prepare d'oclock dinners for their husbands and that those who were single might be safely housed before the early darkness of the winter evenings.

Miss Tiverton sometimes wished that they might stay later, for it was always a long, lonely stretch between the tea hour and the dinner hour.

Sometimes Lavinia Greer stayed with her, and on those occasions, Lavinia's brother Richard would call at 8. And these were the social ones in Miss Tiverton's desolate of dreary evenings.

She always made more tea for Richard and brought out her little sponge cakes. Richard liked the little cakes, and he liked Miss Tiverton's dainty ways, her delicate pink and white prettiness and her pale rose colored house gown.

Lavinia thought Miss Tiverton very foolish to wear muslin all winter. "Think of the washing!" she said as she and Richard walked home one evening. "And Letitia Tiverton is as poor as Job's turkey."

"She surrounds herself," said Richard musingly, "with an atmosphere of beauty."

Lavinia sniffed. She hated to have her brother say nice things about Letitia Tiverton. Lavinia had kept her brother's house for many years and it had always been a great delight to nippish him in his pinky.

Therefore it was many weeks after that ominous remark of Richard's before she again spent an evening with Letitia. She took her work over in the mornings or went to the little tea drinkings, but she did not allow her brother to darken the doors of the little pink cottage.

One day Richard spoke of it mildly. "We were both to Miss Tiverton's for a long time," he said, "not I think, for four weeks tomorrow."

Lavinia gave him a sharp glance. "How did you happen to remember the date?" she asked acutely.

Richard looked at her quizzically over his glasses. "I noted 'dear to me in my diary,'" he said, "every day I downed with the rest of the day, 'Letitia.' I did not tell her that he had added after the formal statement, 'Brought Lavinia home from Miss T.'s,' the further comment, 'Miss T. looks like a rose in her pink gown.'

A week later he urged Lavinia to call. "She will think something is the matter," he said.

Lavinia said nothing. "I have been there in the daytime," she said. "I don't see what more she can expect."

Richard thought for a moment. "She has told us that her evenings are lonely," he reminded his sister.

"Humph!" said Lavinia. "I don't know that we are called to put ourselves out to go there this freezing cold night."

Richard returned to his book, but after a reasonably judicious interval he looked up to say, "I saw a very pretty tea basket in a shop this morning. Lavinia, padded inside to keep the tea warm!"

"What was a thing like that?" Lavinia questioned scornfully. "It always make coffee, Richard."

Richard said nothing more. He loved tea, but wine preferred coffee, and there you were. Yet the next morning he sauntered to the flaming Japanese bazaar, where were displayed native wares to tempt the tourist who were making the old fashioned southern village a halfway stopping place on their way to the tropics.

The basket was a quiet, small, off-center wicker with a gay pink satin lining and a green and pink cord and tassel about the handle. The pink made Richard think of Miss Tiverton. With a deft look he went in and bought the basket and ordered it sent to her.

His heart failed him, however, when the dark skinned saleswoman asked him if he wanted to buy it.

"Just send it without," he said hastily. Visions of Miss Lavinia's wrath should she know of his purchase came to him oppressively.

The mysterious basket was little. Letitia Tiverton a source of infinite delightful speculation. She displayed it to her afternoon circle, the rose colored ring, the pink cord and tassel, the pink lining.

"And I can't imagine who sent me such a beautiful thing," she ended radiantly when all had seen it.

At the first glance Lavinia Green eyes had hardened. Of all those women she only suspected where that basket had come from. Richard had sent it. This looked seriously like the beginning of a new life that would be most lucrative to Miss Lavinia.

On the way home she thought over a plan. It was simple. At dinner she told Richard, "Letitia Tiverton was too silly about a basket that some one sent to her."

Richard started, and his face flushed. He realized that Lavinia had put two and two together and had guessed that it was he who had sent the tea basket to Miss Tiverton.

"I wish you had seen her!" Lavinia pursued. "I wish you had heard her giggle and boast that you sent it."

Richard turned questioning eyes upon her. "But she did not know that I had sent it," he said. "There was no card, Lavinia."

Lavinia went on hurriedly. "Well, then, she guessed, for she bragged of it, Richard—it—it was disgusting." Miss Lavinia's face was a dull red. She did not like what she was doing now and that she was doing it. But she was desperate.

"I can't imagine"—Richard's tone was incisive—"I can't imagine, Lavinia, a woman of Miss Tiverton's delicacy doing a thing like that."

Lavinia tossed her head. "You don't know much about women, Richard."

Richard walked abroad that night consumed by angry doubts. Surely Lavinia would not be. Surely Miss Tiverton would not brag. His gold headed cane tapped the pavement resolutely. Then suddenly he strode down the street, irresolute no longer. Miss Letitia, alone and little wistful in her small gray cottage, heard the tap of the cane. She had heard every night when Richard went for his evening walk.

Behind her curtains she had watched him regularly and had admired the straightness of him, the briskness of his walk, the brown waves of hair which in defiance of modern fashion were so long that it almost touched his shoulders.

It had never dawned on Miss Tiverton that such a great being as Lavinia's brother could look upon her and find her lovely. In her humility, she had not dreamed that the basket was an offering from such a source.

She had thought of the women of her class, which had clubbed together to begin with, and had been a success, and her effusiveness at the afternoon gathering had been due to her gratitude.

The tap of the gold headed cane sounded right in front of her gate, stopped and began again on the stone walk that led to the front door.

Then the bell rang. Miss Tiverton answered it. Richard stepped over her threshold for the first time without his sister Lavinia.

"I came," he said when he was seated, "to ask a question, a delicate question, Miss Tiverton. Who sent you your tea basket?"

Miss Letitia's clear eyes met his frankly. "Oh, did Lavinia tell you that one was sent?" she asked. "It's sure a beauty!" And she brought it to him, displaying the rose lining and the lassies.

Richard drew a long breath of relief. The doubts that Lavinia had planted died. There was nothing of deceit in that childlike soul, is that flowerlike face.

"Miss Letitia," he said, "with his hands on the basket, 'haven't you guessed who sent it?'"

He puffed glancing met his. "No," she unmirrored.

"I—sent it," he confessed, "because it reminded me of you—the rose color and the pink-like your pretty grown, your pretty self, a rose of a woman."

Miss Letitia stood half poised for flight. "Oh," she said breathlessly, and her eyes were like stars. "Oh, Mr. Greer!"

Richard grew bolder. "I sent it because I love you, Letitia. There is no happiness that could exceed that of winning you for my wife."

It came upon little Letitia almost that she was born of a spirit of happiness, and she swayed toward him, looking just then, more like a lily than a rose, and the tea basket dropped from her slender hand.

Richard caught it deftly as he drew her to him. "You will pour tea for me, won't you," he demanded, trying to color the back of her cheeks.

"For the rest of my days, Letitia? Let me give you coffee—but then, oh, Lavinia! Will you marry me sweetheart?"

And Miss Letitia after a startled "Oh, Richard!" buried her face against his coat and said, "Yes."

Don't Be Cheap.

Do not think yourself too cheap. If you do not think well of yourself others are not likely to think much of you. You are usually taken at your own value. By this is not meant a foolish self conceit, but a proper self respect.

Have a regard for the esteem of those whose opinion is worth having.

No one has ever injured all his enemies in his doubt whether he has real friends. Try to win the regard of the good and the wise. If the foolish take offense, pass it by.

When they went ashore the sportsman offered the keeper some sherry, which that functionary declined.

"I've got no whisky," said the gentleman. "What is your objection to beer?"

"Well," replied Sandy. "If ye mean ken, it's the same objection as ye ha'e ta'e the trout the day—it won't bite today."

When they went ashore the sportsman offered the keeper some sherry, which that functionary declined.

"I've got no whisky," said the gentleman. "What is your objection to beer?"

"Well," replied Sandy. "If ye mean ken, it's the same objection as ye ha'e ta'e the trout the day—it won't bite today."

Eating Oysters.

Surely the easiest way of cooking an oyster is the old fashioned way of the year 1672, when Richardson, the fire-eater, took a live coal on his tongue; in this he put a raw oyster in its shell, while an attendant blew upon it until it was dead and then he struck and jerked in his mouth. This continued until the oyster opened and was perfectly cooked.

The European Magazine for 1866 gives an account of the whole procedure.

To be genuine puts you on a high level. Whatever your purse, you may be rich in character. Think yourself worthy of the best to which you can attain. Aim for the highest you see, and should you fail to reach it you will still be higher than if your aim had been low.—Milwaukee Journal.

Unfeeling.

A soft air shook the honeysuckle vine, and puffs of delicate perfume floated gently to where erotic Blenkinsop sat spooning with his girl. Not a leaf stirred. Only the birds sang above, and the great earth below. All around was the atmosphere of love.

His tone was reverent and husky. It was as if this slim and beautiful maiden were in his eyes a goddess.

"Darling," he exclaimed, pausing in his ecstatic osculations, "each time I kiss you it makes a better man of me!" They fell to again.

A voice from above broke harshly on the ear.

"Who are you by now, then—saith the tempter of a world that would be lost?"

A burst of rauid laughter, the rattle of a closing window and then once more the holy calm of undisturbed night—London Scraps.

GOT HIS MEASURE,

The Witness Had No Further Fear of the Cross Examiner.

The great lawyer was just starting home after a hard day's work in court. A sedate-looking man approached him and said:

"I don't know whether you remember me or not. I am one of the witnesses whom you cross-examined yesterday."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism and equal in all three parts the three faces which include a trial angle of a second prism, each to each, and are like placed, the two prisms being in all their parts," what would you understand by it?"

"I'm afraid I'm not quite sure of what you mean by it."

"There are one or two small matters I want to ask you about. You seem to be a person of superior intelligence. I will along with you waste any time. What I wanted to ask you is that the three faces which include a trial angle of a prism

FORTIFIED AT FIFTY

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Bring Health and Strength to Women at a Critical Time.

Few women reach the age of fifty without enduring much suffering and anxiety. Between the years of forty-five and fifty health becomes fickle, and acute weaknesses arise with rheumatism, pain in the back and sides, frequent headaches, nervous ailments and depression of spirits.

The secret of good health between forty-five and fifty depends upon the blood supply. If it is kept rich, red and pure, good health will be the result, and women will pass their critical stage in safety. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills help women of mature years as no other medicine can, for they make the "rich, red blood" that means good health, and bring relief from suffering. Mrs. C. Thompson recommends. She says: "about two years ago I was greatly troubled and very miserable. I did not know what was wrong with me. I was hardly able to drag myself about, had severe headaches and no appetite. They were so bad that I hardly cared whether I lived or died. I had often read of what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had done for others and I decided to try them, and I can now truthfully say I found them all they are recommended to be. Under their use my health gradually came back to normal. I am now stronger and feel stronger in every way, and before long I was enjoying as good health as ever I had done."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure by going to the root of the trouble in the blood. They really make the blood. That is why they cure such troubles as rheumatism, neuritis, indigestion, kidney troubles, head aches, sideaches and backaches," and the ailments of growing girls and young men. For years Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been by mail at $16 cents a box or six boxes for $25.00 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brooklyn, Ont.

What He Thought

Mr. Jones had recently become the father of twins. The minister stopped him on the street and rebuked him. "Well, Jones," he said, "I hear that the Lord has smiled on you." "Smiled on me!" repeated Jones. "He laughed out loud at me!"

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that the $100 reward offered to any one who has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is cure now, the "Red Calcar" Cure, the only one cure known to man, for trachoma, for bringing a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional act, acting directly upon the blood and muscles, the foundation of the disease, and saving the patient from the effects of the disease, and saving the patient in doing its work. The proprietors have offered a sum of $100.00 for any one who can cure One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to do.

Address P. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Those Hailo's Family Pills for constipation.

Chicken Homiletic

A country minister in his course of his dining out on the circuit came to a house where a roast chicken was served for dinner. He had previously encountered a series of rib-cornered beef dinners and chicken looked good to him.

"Well, I'll," he facetiously remarked. "Here's where that chicken enters the ministry."

"Hope it does better there than in the lay work," rejoined the small boy of the family.

"Do you always allow the minister who marries you to kiss you?" asks the father of this equally expressive of the lady with a half dozen wedding rings arranged as bangles on her bracelet.

"Dear me, no!" smiles the latter. "That is so horribly old-fashioned, my dear. But I always kiss the judge who divorces me."

A Pill that Proves Its Value.—Those of weak stomach will find strength in Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, because they serve to maintain the healthful action of the stomach and the liver, regulating the bowels which often distract. Drapetons are well acquainted with them and value them at their proper worth. They have afforded relief when other preparations have failed, and have effected cures in ailments of long standing where other medicines were found unavailing.

"What are you talking about? A thing can't be a great help and a great drawback at the same time."

"I don't know. How about a mustard plaster?"—Boston Transcript.

Minard's Liniment, Lumberman's Friend.

As a wedding anniversary present to his parents in Scotland a lumberman graph record of his voice, which they had not heard for thirty years, but recognized immediately.

THE PLAIN OF GUISNES.

Its Transformation Into the Field of the Cloth of Gold.

It was a magnificent display when Henry VIII of England and Philip II of France met in good fellowship on the plain of Guisnes.

The king's retinue had been selected from the nobility of the kingdom. Wolsey, with his 300 followers, headed the escort and was followed by dukes, earls, barons, bishops and knights with their retainers. The escort numbered 4,000 horsemen, not including the queen's escort, numbering nearly 2,000 persons, 800 horses.

The French king had an equally brilliant retinue. King Henry and his great cavalcade were taken, on arrival at Guisnes, to the magnificent palace provided by Wolsey. There was an old palace there, and Wolsey had established himself in that and erected the most beautiful place imaginable. It had a large hall, a grand staircase, rooms decked out as though built of crystal, and much of the woodwork, both inside and out, was covered with gold. All the way from the gate to the door were rows of silver statues. Inside the walls of the chambers and halls were hung with magnificent tapestry embroidered in gold, and the ceilings were painted with gold.

But Henry was compelled to spend all of time in his fine palace, for tents had been erected on the plain, and to these the two kings and their suites were to lodge. The tents of the French king were pitched just outside the walls of the town of Ardes and extended almost to the tents of King Henry.

The tents in which the two queens were lodged were covered with cloth of gold, as were also the tents of the ladies in attendance upon them and of all members of the royal families. The effect was dazzling. Beautiful pavilions hung with cloth of gold dotted the plain; banners floated everywhere; fountains of wine spouted in the bright June sunshine; horses, decorated with ornate bridles, pranced in splendor. So gorgious had the dreary plain been made that it has become known in history as the "Field of the Cloth of Gold."

BROWNING'S "SORDELLO."

The Critics Had Lots of Fun With the Famous Poem.

When Robert Browning was twenty-eight years old and after a tour of Europe he wrote his tragedy of "Sordello." He wrote "Sordello" about which there has always been such a variety of opinion. Dante in his "Purgatory" wrote of Sordello, who was a poet of Provence.

"When 'Sordello' appeared it made a sensation. People said it had offend the public, but the critics could reasonably explain one single line and that after a year no one had claimed this reward. Burlesques were written on it, and in one of these it was claimed that the funniest lines were some of the original ones."

A man is told a story. Douglas Jarrold, who met a friend one day and asked, "Have you read 'Sordello'?" Does it mean anything?"

The friend replied that it meant nothing whatever. "Thank heaven!" said Jarrold. "Then I am not mad! I read it yesterday and feared I was mad, but it is only Browning who has lost his mind."

Another story was that criminals at Newgate prison who were condemned to death were offered full pardon if they would listen to the reading of "Sordello," but in every instance they hastened with glee to the gallows. Browning once said that he blamed himself for the popularity of the poem, and that it had many faults of expression; that he meant to lay stress on incidents in the development of a soul and that little else is worth study.

This estimate of his work was given twenty-five years after it was written, when he had revised it and dedicated it to the Queen. He was very fond of it, and his followers have held that he considered "Sordello" his best literary work. It certainly has many beautiful lines, and in particular there is a word picture as striking as anything in our language!

That autumn eve was stillled. And the sun dimly burned. By the far forest, the torch flame turned.

By the wind back upon the bearers hand in one long flame of crimson; as a brand The woods beneath lay black.

—Boston Globe.

.The Boss Got Ahead.

"I came mighty near resigning my job this morning," said Artup, ordering coffee and sinkers. "I'd made up my mind that the boss and I couldn't get along any more."

"Well, why didn't you resign?" asked the man sitting on the next stool.

"He beat me to it by just one second,"—Chicago Tribune.

Saint Boy.

Mamma—Edgar, didn't I tell you not to take any more preserves from the jar? Small Edgar—Yes, ma'am. Mamma—Then, if you wanted some, why didn't you ask me for them? Small Edgar—Cause I wanted some—Chicago News.

How He Manages His.

"How is it that your wife is so tractable?"

"Why, I told her when we were married that she could do just exactly as she pleased, and of course she finds no pleasure in doing it!"—Chicago Post.

The Fighting Ed.

Bacon—Which do you think is the gamiest bird? Egbert—Well, the black bass is the gamiest to catch, but the catfish is the gamiest when it comes to getting it off the hook.—Yonkers Statesman.

WINNIPEG MAN CURED OF RHEUMATISM

Remarkable Case of Cure After Specialists Failed.

Winnipeg, Man.—A prominent resident of this city, who for personal reasons does not care to be mentioned publicly, but who permits us to show his letter to interested enquirers, writes to say that he was suddenly taken with excruciating pains in the back and legs, and was unable to walk.

The French king had an equally brilliant retinue. King Henry and his great cavalcade were taken, on arrival at Guisnes, to the magnificent palace provided by Wolsey. There was an old palace there, and Wolsey had established himself in that and erected the most beautiful place imaginable. It had a large hall, a grand staircase, rooms decked out as though built of crystal, and much of the woodwork, both inside and out, was covered with gold. All the way from the gate to the door were rows of silver statues. Inside the walls of the chambers and halls were hung with magnificent tapestry embroidered in gold, and the ceilings were painted with gold.

It was a magnificent display when Henry VIII of England and Philip II of France met in good fellowship on the plain of Guisnes.

The king's retinue had been selected from the nobility of the kingdom. Wolsey, with his 300 followers, headed the escort and was followed by dukes, earls, barons, bishops and knights with their retainers. The escort numbered 4,000 horsemen, not including the queen's escort, numbering nearly 2,000 persons, 800 horses.

The French king had an equally brilliant retinue. King Henry and his great cavalcade were taken, on arrival at Guisnes, to the magnificent palace provided by Wolsey. There was an old palace there, and Wolsey had established himself in that and erected the most beautiful place imaginable. It had a large hall, a grand staircase, rooms decked out as though built of crystal, and much of the woodwork, both inside and out, was covered with gold. All the way from the gate to the door were rows of silver statues. Inside the walls of the chambers and halls were hung with magnificent tapestry embroidered in gold, and the ceilings were painted with gold.

It was a magnificent display when Henry VIII of England and Philip II of France met in good fellowship on the plain of Guisnes.

The king's retinue had been selected from the nobility of the kingdom. Wolsey, with his 300 followers, headed the escort and was followed by dukes, earls, barons, bishops and knights with their retainers. The escort numbered 4,000 horsemen, not including the queen's escort, numbering nearly 2,000 persons, 800 horses.

The French king had an equally brilliant retinue. King Henry and his great cavalcade were taken, on arrival at Guisnes, to the magnificent palace provided by Wolsey. There was an old palace there, and Wolsey had established himself in that and erected the most beautiful place imaginable. It had a large hall, a grand staircase, rooms decked out as though built of crystal, and much of the woodwork, both inside and out, was covered with gold. All the way from the gate to the door were rows of silver statues. Inside the walls of the chambers and halls were hung with magnificent tapestry embroidered in gold, and the ceilings were painted with gold.

It was a magnificent display when Henry VIII of England and Philip II of France met in good fellowship on the plain of Guisnes.

The king's retinue had been selected from the nobility of the kingdom. Wolsey, with his 300 followers, headed the escort and was followed by dukes, earls, barons, bishops and knights with their retainers. The escort numbered 4,000 horsemen, not including the queen's escort, numbering nearly 2,000 persons, 800 horses.

The French king had an equally brilliant retinue. King Henry and his great cavalcade were taken, on arrival at Guisnes, to the magnificent palace provided by Wolsey. There was an old palace there, and Wolsey had established himself in that and erected the most beautiful place imaginable. It had a large hall, a grand staircase, rooms decked out as though built of crystal, and much of the woodwork, both inside and out, was covered with gold. All the way from the gate to the door were rows of silver statues. Inside the walls of the chambers and halls were hung with magnificent tapestry embroidered in gold, and the ceilings were painted with gold.

It was a magnificent display when Henry VIII of England and Philip II of France met in good fellowship on the plain of Guisnes.

The king's retinue had been selected from the nobility of the kingdom. Wolsey, with his 300 followers, headed the escort and was followed by dukes, earls, barons, bishops and knights with their retainers. The escort numbered 4,000 horsemen, not including the queen's escort, numbering nearly 2,000 persons, 800 horses.

The French king had an equally brilliant retinue. King Henry and his great cavalcade were taken, on arrival at Guisnes, to the magnificent palace provided by Wolsey. There was an old palace there, and Wolsey had established himself in that and erected the most beautiful place imaginable. It had a large hall, a grand staircase, rooms decked out as though built of crystal, and much of the woodwork, both inside and out, was covered with gold. All the way from the gate to the door were rows of silver statues. Inside the walls of the chambers and halls were hung with magnificent tapestry embroidered in gold, and the ceilings were painted with gold.

It was a magnificent display when Henry VIII of England and Philip II of France met in good fellowship on the plain of Guisnes.

The king's retinue had been selected from the nobility of the kingdom. Wolsey, with his 300 followers, headed the escort and was followed by dukes, earls, barons, bishops and knights with their retainers. The escort numbered 4,000 horsemen, not including the queen's escort, numbering nearly 2,000 persons, 800 horses.

The French king had an equally brilliant retinue. King Henry and his great cavalcade were taken, on arrival at Guisnes, to the magnificent palace provided by Wolsey. There was an old palace there, and Wolsey had established himself in that and erected the most beautiful place imaginable. It had a large hall, a grand staircase, rooms decked out as though built of crystal, and much of the woodwork, both inside and out, was covered with gold. All the way from the gate to the door were rows of silver statues. Inside the walls of the chambers and halls were hung with magnificent tapestry embroidered in gold, and the ceilings were painted with gold.

It was a magnificent display when Henry VIII of England and Philip II of France met in good fellowship on the plain of Guisnes.

The king's retinue had been selected from the nobility of the kingdom. Wolsey, with his 300 followers, headed the escort and was followed by dukes, earls, barons, bishops and knights with their retainers. The escort numbered 4,000 horsemen, not including the queen's escort, numbering nearly 2,000 persons, 800 horses.

The French king had an equally brilliant retinue. King Henry and his great cavalcade were taken, on arrival at Guisnes, to the magnificent palace provided by Wolsey. There was an old palace there, and Wolsey had established himself in that and erected the most beautiful place imaginable. It had a large hall, a grand staircase, rooms decked out as though built of crystal, and much of the woodwork, both inside and out, was covered with gold. All the way from the gate to the door were rows of silver statues. Inside the walls of the chambers and halls were hung with magnificent tapestry embroidered in gold, and the ceilings were painted with gold.

It was a magnificent display when Henry VIII of England and Philip II of France met in good fellowship on the plain of Guisnes.

The king's retinue had been selected from the nobility of the kingdom. Wolsey, with his 300 followers, headed the escort and was followed by dukes, earls, barons, bishops and knights with their retainers. The escort numbered 4,000 horsemen, not including the queen's escort, numbering nearly 2,000 persons, 800 horses.

The French king had an equally brilliant retinue. King Henry and his great cavalcade were taken, on arrival at Guisnes, to the magnificent palace provided by Wolsey. There was an old palace there, and Wolsey had established himself in that and erected the most beautiful place imaginable. It had a large hall, a grand staircase, rooms decked out as though built of crystal, and much of the woodwork, both inside and out, was covered with gold. All the way from the gate to the door were rows of silver statues. Inside the walls of the chambers and halls were hung with magnificent tapestry embroidered in gold, and the ceilings were painted with gold.

It was a magnificent display when Henry VIII of England and Philip II of France met in good fellowship on the plain of Guisnes.

The king's retinue had been selected from the nobility of the kingdom. Wolsey, with his 300 followers, headed the escort and was followed by dukes, earls, barons, bishops and knights with their retainers. The escort numbered 4,000 horsemen, not including the queen's escort, numbering nearly 2,000 persons, 800 horses.

The French king had an equally brilliant retinue. King Henry and his great cavalcade were taken, on arrival at Guisnes, to the magnificent palace provided by Wolsey. There was an old palace there, and Wolsey had established himself in that and erected the most beautiful place imaginable. It had a large hall, a grand staircase, rooms decked out as though built of crystal, and much of the woodwork, both inside and out, was covered with gold. All the way from the gate to the door were rows of silver statues. Inside the walls of the chambers and halls were hung with magnificent tapestry embroidered in gold, and the ceilings were painted with gold.

It was a magnificent display when Henry VIII of England and Philip II of France met in good fellowship on the plain of Guisnes.

The king's retinue had been selected from the nobility of the kingdom. Wolsey, with his 300 followers, headed the escort and was followed by dukes, earls, barons, bishops and knights with their retainers. The escort numbered 4,000 horsemen, not including the queen's escort, numbering nearly 2,000 persons, 800 horses.

The French king had an equally brilliant retinue. King Henry and his great cavalcade were taken, on arrival at Guisnes, to the magnificent palace provided by Wolsey. There was an old palace there, and Wolsey had established himself in that and erected the most beautiful place imaginable. It had a large hall, a grand staircase, rooms decked out as though built of crystal, and much of the woodwork, both inside and out, was covered with gold. All the way from the gate to the door were rows of silver statues. Inside the walls of the chambers and halls were hung with magnificent tapestry embroidered in gold, and the ceilings were painted with gold.

It was a magnificent display when Henry VIII of England and Philip II of France met in good fellowship on the plain of Guisnes.

The king's retinue had been selected from the nobility of the kingdom. Wolsey, with his 300 followers, headed the escort and was followed by dukes, earls, barons, bishops and knights with their retainers. The escort numbered 4,000 horsemen, not including the queen's escort, numbering nearly 2,000 persons, 800 horses.

The French king had an equally brilliant retinue. King Henry and his great cavalcade were taken, on arrival at Guisnes, to the magnificent palace provided by Wolsey. There was an old palace there, and Wolsey had established himself in that and erected the most beautiful place imaginable. It had a large hall, a grand staircase, rooms decked out as though built of crystal, and much of the woodwork, both inside and out, was covered with gold. All the way from the gate to the door were rows of silver statues. Inside the walls of the chambers and halls were hung with magnificent tapestry embroidered in gold, and the ceilings were painted with gold.

It was a magnificent display when Henry VIII of England and Philip II of France met in good fellowship on the plain of Guisnes.

The king's retinue had been selected from the nobility of the kingdom. Wolsey, with his 300 followers, headed the escort and was followed by dukes, earls, barons, bishops and knights with their retainers. The escort numbered 4,000 horsemen, not including the queen's escort, numbering nearly 2,000 persons, 800 horses.

The French king had an equally brilliant retinue. King Henry and his great cavalcade were taken, on arrival at Guisnes, to the magnificent palace provided by Wolsey. There was an old palace there, and Wolsey had established himself in that and erected the most beautiful place imaginable. It had a large hall, a grand staircase, rooms decked out as though built of crystal, and much of the woodwork, both inside and out, was covered with gold. All the way from the gate to the door were rows of silver statues. Inside the walls of the chambers and halls were hung with magnificent tapestry embroidered in gold, and the ceilings were painted with gold.

It was a magnificent display when Henry VIII of England and Philip II of France met in good fellowship on the plain of Guisnes.

The king's retinue had been selected from the nobility of the kingdom. Wolsey, with his 300 followers, headed the escort and was followed by dukes, earls, barons, bishops and knights with their retainers. The escort numbered 4,000 horsemen, not including the queen's escort, numbering nearly 2,000 persons, 800 horses.

The French king had an equally brilliant retinue. King Henry and his great cavalcade were taken, on arrival at Guisnes, to the magnificent palace provided by Wolsey. There was an old palace there, and Wolsey had established himself in that and erected the most beautiful place imaginable. It had a large hall, a grand staircase, rooms decked out as though built of crystal, and much of the woodwork, both inside and out, was covered with gold. All the way from the gate to the door were rows of silver statues. Inside the walls of the chambers and halls were hung with magnificent tapestry embroidered in gold, and the ceilings were painted with gold.

It was a magnificent display when Henry VIII of England and Philip II of France met in good fellowship on the plain of Guisnes.

The king's retinue had been selected from the nobility of the kingdom. Wolsey, with his 300 followers, headed the escort and was followed by dukes, earls, barons, bishops and knights with their retainers. The escort numbered 4,000 horsemen, not including the queen's escort, numbering nearly 2,000 persons, 800 horses.

The French king had an equally brilliant retinue. King Henry and his great cavalcade were taken, on arrival at Guisnes, to the magnificent palace provided by Wolsey. There was an old palace there, and Wolsey had established himself in that and erected the most beautiful place imaginable. It had a large hall, a grand staircase, rooms decked out as though built of crystal, and much of the woodwork, both inside and out, was covered with gold. All the way from the gate to the door were rows of silver statues. Inside the walls of the chambers and halls were hung with magnificent tapestry embroidered in gold, and the ceilings were painted with gold.

It was a magnificent display when Henry VIII of England and Philip II of France met in good fellowship on the plain of Guisnes.

The king's retinue had been selected from the nobility of the kingdom. Wolsey, with his 300 followers, headed the escort and was followed by dukes, earls, barons, bishops and knights with their retainers. The escort numbered 4,000 horsemen, not including the queen's escort, numbering nearly 2,000 persons, 800 horses.

The French king had an equally brilliant retinue. King Henry and his great cavalcade were taken, on arrival at Guisnes, to the magnificent palace provided by Wolsey. There was an old palace there, and Wolsey had established himself in that and erected the most beautiful place imaginable. It had a large hall, a grand staircase, rooms decked out as though built of crystal, and much of the woodwork, both inside and out, was covered with gold. All the way from the gate to the door were rows of silver statues. Inside the walls of the chambers and halls were hung with magnificent tapestry embroidered in gold, and the ceilings were painted with gold.

It was a magnificent display when Henry VIII of England and Philip II of France met in good fellowship on the plain of Guisnes.

The king's retinue had been selected from the nobility of the kingdom. Wolsey, with his 300 followers, headed the escort and was followed by dukes, earls, barons, bishops and knights with their retainers. The escort numbered 4,000 horsemen, not including the queen's escort, numbering nearly 2,000 persons, 800 horses.

The French king had an equally brilliant retinue. King Henry and his great cavalcade were taken, on arrival at Guisnes, to the magnificent palace provided by Wolsey. There was an old palace there, and Wolsey had established himself in that and erected the most beautiful place imaginable. It had a large hall, a grand staircase, rooms decked out as though built of crystal, and much of the woodwork, both inside and out, was covered with gold. All the way from the gate to the door were rows of silver statues. Inside the walls of the chambers and halls were hung with magnificent tapestry embroidered in gold, and the ceilings were painted with gold.

It was a magnificent display when Henry VIII of England and Philip II of France met in good fellowship on the plain of Guisnes.

The king's retinue had been selected from the nobility of the kingdom. Wolsey, with his 300 followers, headed the escort and was followed by dukes, earls, barons, bishops and knights with their retainers. The escort numbered 4,000 horsemen, not including the queen's escort, numbering nearly 2,000 persons, 800 horses.

The French king had an equally brilliant retinue. King Henry and his great cavalcade were taken, on arrival at Guisnes, to the magnificent palace provided by Wolsey. There was an old palace there, and Wolsey had established himself in that and erected the most beautiful place imaginable. It had a large hall, a grand staircase, rooms decked out as though built of crystal, and much of the woodwork, both inside and out, was covered with gold. All the way from the gate to the door were rows of silver statues. Inside the walls of the chambers and halls were hung with magnificent tapestry embroidered in gold, and the ceilings were painted with gold.

It was a magnificent display when Henry VIII of England and Philip II of France met in good fellowship on the plain of Guisnes.

The king's retinue had been selected from the nobility of the kingdom. Wolsey, with his 300 followers, headed the escort and was followed by dukes, earls, barons, bishops and knights with their retainers. The escort numbered 4,000 horsemen, not including the queen's escort, numbering nearly 2,000 persons, 800 horses.

The French king had an equally brilliant retinue. King Henry and his great cavalcade were taken, on arrival at Guisnes, to the magnificent palace provided by Wolsey. There was an old palace there, and Wolsey had established himself in that and erected the most beautiful place imaginable. It had a large hall, a grand staircase, rooms decked out as though built of crystal, and much of the woodwork, both inside and out, was covered with gold. All the way from the gate to the door were rows of silver statues. Inside the walls of the chambers and halls were hung with magnificent tapestry embroidered in gold, and the ceilings were painted with gold.

It was a magnificent display when Henry VIII of England and Philip II of France met in good fellowship on the plain of Guisnes.

The king's retinue had been selected from the nobility of the kingdom. Wolsey, with his 300 followers, headed the escort and was followed by dukes, earls, barons, bishops and knights with their retainers. The escort numbered 4,000 horsemen, not including the queen's escort, numbering nearly 2,000 persons, 800 horses.

The French king had an equally brilliant retinue. King Henry and his great cavalcade were taken, on arrival at Guisnes, to the magnificent palace provided by Wolsey. There was an old palace there, and Wolsey had established himself in that and erected the most beautiful place imaginable. It had a large hall, a grand staircase, rooms decked out as though built of crystal, and much of the woodwork, both inside and out, was covered with gold. All the way from the gate to the door were rows of silver statues. Inside the walls of the chambers and halls were hung with magnificent tapestry embroidered in gold, and the ceilings were painted with gold.

It was a magnificent display when Henry VIII of England and Philip II of France met in good fellowship on the plain of Guisnes.

The king's retinue had been selected from the nobility of the kingdom. Wolsey, with his 300 followers, headed the escort and was followed by dukes, earls, barons, bishops and knights with their retainers. The escort numbered 4,000 horsemen, not including the queen's escort, numbering nearly 2,000 persons, 800 horses.

The French king had an equally brilliant retinue. King Henry and his great cavalcade were taken, on arrival at Guisnes, to the magnificent palace provided by Wolsey. There was an old palace there, and Wolsey had established himself in that and erected the most beautiful place imaginable. It had a large hall, a grand staircase, rooms decked out as though built of crystal, and much of the woodwork, both inside and out, was covered with gold. All the way from the gate to the door were rows of silver statues. Inside the walls of the chambers and halls were hung with magnificent tapestry embroidered in gold, and the ceilings were painted with gold.

It was a magnificent display when Henry VIII of England and Philip II of France met in good fellowship on the plain of Guisnes.

The king's retinue had been selected from the nobility of the kingdom. Wolsey, with his 300 followers, headed the escort and was followed by dukes, earls, barons, bishops and knights with their retainers. The escort numbered 4,000 horsemen, not including the queen's escort, numbering nearly 2,000 persons, 800 horses.

The French king had an equally brilliant retinue. King Henry and his great cavalcade were taken, on arrival at Guisnes, to the magnificent palace provided by Wolsey. There was an old palace there, and Wolsey had established himself in that and erected the most beautiful place imaginable. It had a large hall, a grand staircase, rooms decked out as though built of crystal, and much of the woodwork,

41 Meat Market

Limited

Head Office:

Pincher Creek, Alberta

Markets in—

PINCHER CREEK Alberta

BELLEVUE,

FRANK,

BLAIRMORE,

COLEMAN,

and MICHEL, British Columbia

Choice Meats

and prompt delivery is our guarantee

TEMPERANCE HOTEL*PACIFIC HOTEL

Is the place to stop when in town. Good accommodations for travellers. We have a large sample room.

Clean, large, well lighted rooms able unsurpassed in the West

Mrs. J. McAlpine
Proprietress

Hotel Coleman

MUTZ &amp; McNEIL, Proprietors

Rates, $2 to $2.50 Daily
Special Rates Given by the Month

Grand Union Hotel

ADAM PATERSON, Manager

Liquors imported direct from Europe and guaranteed

Sparkling Wines
Scotch Whiskey

Brandy
Gin
Ports
Cherry

Special attention to working men

$1 50 Per Day

T. W. DaviesCarpenter and Builder of Coleman

Wishes to thank his many friends for their kind patronage in the past and also wishes to inform the residents of Coleman and Blairmore that he has been induced to put in a stock of Caskets and will in future be prepared to undertake all arrangements for Funerals

TENDERS

Tenders will be received by the undersigned up to noon on Friday, June 25th for the erection of an addition to the fire hall, Coleman. Plans and specifications may be seen at Mr. F.G. Graham's, Lawyer, or any tender necessarily accepted.

ALEX. CAMERON,
Chairman of Coleman Council.COLEMAN MINER

Published by The Foothills Job Print and News Company, Limited

Subscription $2 per Year in Advance

Advertising Rates on application

J. D. S. BARRETT, Editor and Manager

Coleman, Friday, June 18, 1909

DENUNCIATION OF CORRUPTION

Before the Presbyterian Assembly at Hamilton, Ontario, a few days ago, the Rev. Dr. Pringle handled the Canadian politicians without gloves.

In speaking of political corruption the reverend doctor scolded the administration of the Yukon, denouncing bribery and corruption which have been the "stock in trade" during the elections held in the far north.

As an instance of debauching the electorate Dr. Pringle stated that there was one fishery inspector for every twenty-five of population and in Cariboo and Pugwash wharves have been started before the last two elections but as soon as the votes were counted the construction of the wharves ceased.

In speaking of the west the Rev. Dr. touched on the huge timber steals and fishery leases about which so much was heard during the last election.

Sir Frederick Borden, one of Sir Wilfrid's right hand men, also came in for a few well deserved words. The reverend gentleman said that Sir Frederick's name was a synonym for lust and that his presence at the council table of the nation was a disgrace to a civilized people.

In concluding, the speaker said, what had judge Cassell's report proved? The judge said that graft was prevalent and could only be stopped by the awakening of the public conscience.

The Dr. urged upon his fellow minister to be up and doing and not allow this disgraceful state of affairs to continue without denouncing it with all their power until Canada was freed of bribery and corruption and the men who practice it.

It is a pity that Canada has not got more of such fearless men as the Rev. Dr. Pringle. If we had and the proper penalties were handed out to our present day rulers the jail accommodation would be in adequate. However, the people should be willing to provide the necessary accommodation for the relief it would bring to the country at large.

EDITORIAL NOTES

If you can't boast this town don't knock it.

Coleman's bright future might well be envied by many older and, at present, larger towns.

Coleman will shortly become a second Butte with the population running into the tens of thousands.

Ostriches stick their heads in the sand when pursued. Some politicians would like to do the same, but pursuers like the Rev. Dr. Pringle are armed with a sharp stick.

Information regarding the whereabouts of C. M. O'Brien, member of the provincial parliament for this constituency, will be thankfully received by his descending followers.

The high water did not do much damage after all. Of course the Alberta Government knew there would be no flood when they refused assistance in keeping the Old Man where he belongs.

Well! well! and would you believe it. The estate of the late C. Bomey of Burnsie is to be wound up. Only five years behind time but it might be worse. "What's the matter with the Alberta Government."

The Calgary Herald says: Two vessels recently reached Victoria from the orient. One had 949 Chinese on board, while the other carried half a million dollars' worth of silk. Some people think the latter cargo was much more valuable than the shipload of celestials.

What's the matter with driving a line between the North and the South and forming the government of southern Alberta. We would bet that those fellows at Edmonton wouldn't know a thing about it for months because they are so busy with the North.

SNAKE IN THE BEER

Richmond, Va., June 16.—Joseph M. Staten, bridge inspector for the C. & O. railway, who has just returned from an inspection tour in West Virginia, tells of the remarkable death of eight Italian laborers on the Piney Creek branch of the road, near the town of Raleigh, following a wild debauch with a barrel of beer. According to Staten, the men purchased and drank the barrel of beer in their shack on the railroad and proceeded to drink their fill. Later all eight were discovered lying about on the beds and on the floor dead.

Due to the fact that a considerable portion of the beer was still left in the barrel, the conclusion was reached that over indulgence had not caused the death of the men. The barrel was taken into a saloon of the barbershop, the beer had been drawn off. It is presumed that the snake in its death agony injected enough of poison into the beer to kill the men who drank it.

Blairmore Cafe
Blairmore

Is prepared to serve First Class
Meals at all hours
on shortest notice.

Ice Cream, Fruit, and all kinds of Cake for sale here

Notice to Contractors

Tenders are requested for the creation of a solid brick School at Lundbreck, Alta., for the Lundbreck School Board.

All tenders are to be sealed and endorsed and sent to the Secretary of the School Board, Lundbreck, Alta., and must reach him on or before 12 o'clock noon, Thursday, June 24th, 1909.

The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

Plans and specifications may be obtained from the architects,

Messrs. HODGSON & BATES,

Dominion Building,

Calgary, Alta.

New Jewerly Store*J. B. Carlson

has opened up a Jewelry Store at Pincher City, Alberta

and is prepared to do all kinds of repairing
on short notice.

All work guaranteed. A trial is all I ask. Prices reasonable

J. B. Carlson*Pincher City*Alberta*Town Lots*Houses and Lots for Salein the cleanest and best town in The Crow's Nest PassHigh Grade Steam and Coking CoalWe manufacture The Finest Coke on the continent

Correspondence solicited at the Head office, Coleman

International Coal & Coke Co.

Limited

High-Class Work

If it is a high-class job you want than send it to the Job Department of the Coleman Miner where it will be promptly executed.

• Advertise

In this Paper it is largely circulated all over the District. Read by over 4,000 people

D. THOMPSON
ADVOCATE AND NOTARY PUBLIC
Solicitor for Canadian Bank of Commerce.
Main Street
PINCHER CREEK - ALBERTA

DR. HEWETSON
Office: 2nd Door East of Hudson's
Hours: 10-12 a.m., 2-4 and 7-8 p.m.
Sundays: 12 to 2 p.m.
At Pincher City by appointment only,
after 4 p.m.
PINCHER CREEK, ALBERTA

DR. J. J. GILLESPIE, M.D., C.M.
PHYSICIAN, SURGEON, ACCOUCHEUR, Offices and rooms in Scott Block up stairs over furniture store.
Phone No. 69.
PINCHER CREEK - ALBERTA

DR. J. E. WRIGHT
DENTIST
Modern Dentistry in all its Branches.
Best Antiseptic Methods.
Office in Scott Block #3
PINCHER CREEK - ALBERTA

C. E. Turcot, M.D., B.S.
Physician, Surgeon
Late resident physician of Maternity Hospital, Quebec. Late of Paris and London. Office: one door east Label block, telephone 5.

Pincher Creek Alberta

Farmers!
When in need of Lumber, Shingles, Doors, Etc.,
call at

Taylor Lumber
& Grain Co.,
Pincher City Alberta

W. P. Laidlaw
Hardware and Groceries
PINCHER CITY

Hardware
Formaline and Bluestone.
Spring Goods will be to hand shortly.

Groceries
Fresh goods arriving every week. Give us a trial.

Pincher City Alberta

A Large Assortment of Watches

Alarm Clocks
of all descriptions
and at all prices

Repairing a Specialty

F. W. LINDSAY
Issuer of Marriage Licenses, Jeweler and Optician.

Pincher Creek Alberta

When in Town call at the

Alberta Hotel

which is now under new management. A hotel which makes you feel at home

The Farmers' and Ranchers'
Headquarters

Excellent Table
Bar Up-to-Date

F. M. Collins,
Proprietor

Pincher Creek Alberta

High-class printing at

THE MINER OFFICE

Happenings at Blairmore
Friday will be pay day in town.

Thomas Cyr is erecting a new house.

H. E. Lyon went to Calgary on Thursday.

Joe Moreno is erecting a new house near the river.

The Mission hall received a coat of paint this week.

Nothing slow about the Blairmore baseball team, eh?

Blairmore's "hoodoo" has departed. Who was it anyway?

Tom Davidson and Fred Adams left for British Columbia this week.

Frank E. Hinds purchased thirteen lots in the Pelletier area this week, doing a rushing business.

A. B. Hames took over the Mercantile stock this week and is doing a rushing business.

Mrs. Jos. Emmerson of Coleman spent a few days here this week the guest of Mrs. J. A. McDonald.

Some mean cuss tore down and carried away the new revolving sign of Gilroy & Rose the barbers.

A. E. Nichols, the contractor has been kept very busy lately superintending the building of several dwellings in town.

A dance will be given by the young men of Blairmore in the school hall within the next ten days. Announcements later.

Toot, toot, toot. The first whistle at the Pelletier brick yards was heard Wednesday and heard many times too. The plant was tested Wednesday and everything found in first class working order. Bricks will be turned out this week. Mr. Pelletier is to be congratulated on his enterprise. The Pelletier bricks will make Blairmore famous.

Notice to the Public

I take this opportunity of informing the residents of the Pass that I am prepared to collect accounts, rents, etc. Anything in this line entrusted to me will receive prompt attention. Commissioner for taking affidavits. House and shacks to rent.

H. GATE, Coleman

D. A. TAYLOR, M.D.C.M.
SPECIALIST
EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT
Stafford Block, Lethbridge, Alta.
OFFICE HOURS: 9:30 to 12 a.m.; 2 to 5 p.m.; 7 to 8 p.m.

Arthur C. Kemmis

Barrister

Notary Public

Solicitor for the Union Bank of Canada

Hunter Block

Pincher Creek Alberta

Company and Private Funds to Loan

The Bellevue Orchestra

Open to engage for Balls, Dances, Concerts, Banquets, etc. Any size orchestra supplied. For terms apply

W. H. CHAPPELL,
Secretary, Bellevue.

FOR SALE

War Rights, entitling you to half section land anywhere. You have two years allowed in which to make selection.

CAPTAIN COOPER,
Box 412, Calgary.

FOR SALE

Splendid young Pigs five to eight weeks old, $2.50 a piece. F. O. B.
Cowley to any point along the Pass.

HARVEY BOUILLIER,
Cowley, Alberta.

FACTS ABOUT GREAT LETHBRIDGE BRIDGE

The following comment on the great C. P. R. bridge at Lethbridge is made by last Friday's Winnipeg Free Press:—The greatest steel structure in the world, commonly known as the eighth wonder of the world.

Height at highest point, 312 feet or almost two and one-half times the height of the Union Bank building, which is 130 feet high.

Length one mile and 47 feet.

Erected on 67 steel towers, three of which are founded on the rock at the bottom of the Old Man river.

Twenty-four thousand pounds of steel used in construction.

Contract was let at the beginning of 1907 to the Canadian Bridge company.

After two years and a half of strenuous work on the part of a small army of men, it is announced this morning that the last of the steel towers on the mammoth bridge of the Lethbridge-Macleod cut-off on the C. P. R. will be completed next week. The extent of this immense undertaking may be gauged from the figures given above, and its opening, which will take place as soon as the deck is on, will be one of the most important events which have taken place in the western history of the C.P.R. The entire work should be completed early in August.

The mighty structure was erected at a cost of $1,500,000, and is a triumph of engineering skill.

Obstacles which have seemed almost insuperable have been overcome, and the achievement of this important project by the C.P.R. will be a unique and splendid advertisement both for the company and for western Canada.

For years owing to the deep ravine in the bed of the Old Man river the C. P. R. has been obliged to make a wide detour in order to get into Lethbridge, and the new line will make a cut-off of five or six miles.

When it is considered that all freight and passenger trains will be saved this distance in mileage it will be seen what an immense saving in time and expense will be brought about.

Lethbridge being a mining centre, the freight traffic from that point has been exceedingly large.

On the old line there are some 25 to 30

trestles, and at times there have been costly delays when any of these burned out.

The announcement that this huge structure is almost completed comes with especial significance just now, owing to the announcement made

Wednesday by William Whyte, second vice-president of the C. P. R.

He stated that the two spiral tunnels, near the Kicking Horse river, east of Field, would be completed toward the end of July, and that the double tracking between Winnipeg and Fort William would also be completed about the same time.

The next two months will, therefore, see the culmination of a series of improvements which have cost many millions, and which will be of overwhelming advantage to the main systems of the C. P. R. in the west.

The grade, which will be lowered to 2.2 per cent, by the tunnels now being completed in the Rockies, will not materially affect the time of passenger or freight trains, but will mean an immense saving in fuel, and relieve the heavy strain on rolling stock which has been very expensive in the form of repairs.

The next two months will, therefore, see the culmination of a series of improvements which have cost many

millions, and which will be of over-

whelming advantage to the main

systems of the C. P. R. in the west.

The grade, which will be lowered to

2.2 per cent, by the tunnels now being

completed in the Rockies, will not

materially affect the time of passenger

or freight trains, but will mean an

immense saving in fuel, and relieve

the heavy strain on rolling stock

which has been very expensive in the form of repairs.

The next two months will, therefore,

see the culmination of a series of

improvements which have cost many

millions, and which will be of over-

whelming advantage to the main

systems of the C. P. R. in the west.

The grade, which will be lowered to

2.2 per cent, by the tunnels now being

completed in the Rockies, will not

materially affect the time of passenger

or freight trains, but will mean an

immense saving in fuel, and relieve

the heavy strain on rolling stock

which has been very expensive in the

form of repairs.

The next two months will, therefore,

see the culmination of a series of

improvements which have cost many

millions, and which will be of over-

whelming advantage to the main

systems of the C. P. R. in the west.

The grade, which will be lowered to

2.2 per cent, by the tunnels now being

completed in the Rockies, will not

materially affect the time of passenger

or freight trains, but will mean an

immense saving in fuel, and relieve

the heavy strain on rolling stock

which has been very expensive in the

form of repairs.

The next two months will, therefore,

see the culmination of a series of

improvements which have cost many

millions, and which will be of over-

whelming advantage to the main

systems of the C. P. R. in the west.

The grade, which will be lowered to

2.2 per cent, by the tunnels now being

completed in the Rockies, will not

materially affect the time of passenger

or freight trains, but will mean an

immense saving in fuel, and relieve

the heavy strain on rolling stock

which has been very expensive in the

form of repairs.

The next two months will, therefore,

see the culmination of a series of

improvements which have cost many

millions, and which will be of over-

whelming advantage to the main

systems of the C. P. R. in the west.

The grade, which will be lowered to

2.2 per cent, by the tunnels now being

completed in the Rockies, will not

materially affect the time of passenger

or freight trains, but will mean an

immense saving in fuel, and relieve

the heavy strain on rolling stock

which has been very expensive in the

form of repairs.

The next two months will, therefore,

see the culmination of a series of

improvements which have cost many

millions, and which will be of over-

whelming advantage to the main

systems of the C. P. R. in the west.

The grade, which will be lowered to

2.2 per cent, by the tunnels now being

completed in the Rockies, will not

materially affect the time of passenger

or freight trains, but will mean an

immense saving in fuel, and relieve

the heavy strain on rolling stock

which has been very expensive in the

form of repairs.

The next two months will, therefore,

see the culmination of a series of

improvements which have cost many

millions, and which will be of over-

whelming advantage to the main

systems of the C. P. R. in the west.

The grade, which will be lowered to

2.2 per cent, by the tunnels now being

completed in the Rockies, will not

materially affect the time of passenger

or freight trains, but will mean an

immense saving in fuel, and relieve

the heavy strain on rolling stock

which has been very expensive in the

form of repairs.

The next two months will, therefore,

see the culmination of a series of

improvements which have cost many

millions, and which will be of over-

whelming advantage to the main

systems of the C. P. R. in the west.

The grade, which will be lowered to

2.2 per cent, by the tunnels now being

completed in the Rockies, will not

materially affect the time of passenger

or freight trains, but will mean an

immense saving in fuel, and relieve

the heavy strain on rolling stock

which has been very expensive in the

form of repairs.

The next two months will, therefore,

see the culmination of a series of

improvements which have cost many

millions, and which will be of over-

whelming advantage to the main

systems of the C. P. R. in the west.

The grade, which will be lowered to

2.2 per cent, by the tunnels now being

completed in the Rockies, will not

materially affect the time of passenger

or freight trains, but will mean an

immense saving in fuel, and relieve

the heavy strain on rolling stock

which has been very expensive in the

form of repairs.

The next two months will, therefore,

see the culmination of a series of

improvements which have cost many

millions, and which will be of over-

whelming advantage to the main

systems of the C. P. R. in the west.

The grade, which will be lowered to

2.2 per cent, by the tunnels now being

completed in the Rockies, will not

materially affect the time of passenger

or freight trains, but will mean an

immense saving in fuel, and relieve

the heavy strain on rolling stock

Some Remarkable Facts

Fine Artistic Printing

If you were ill and sent for a doctor wouldn't you have enough confidence in him to follow his instructions? Why, of course, any sane person would because he is a specialist and thoroughly understands your needs and will recommend what he knows to be best for you.

Will you not let this same reasoning apply to your needs in office and business stationery. The people that have seen our work say that we are specialists in this line. If you will put your work into our hands we will give you the best treatment possible. Our Job Work is the result of a careful study in the printing and advertising art worked out by thoroughly competent artists, with the latest styles of type and modern machinery to help them.

Plain Stationery

If it is plain private Stationery you want we have it and can supply you at a smaller price than anybody else in town.

Foothills Job Print & News Co., Ltd.

Head Office: COLEMAN, ALBERTA

- USE -

New Life

FOR Stomach Trouble

E. MORINO

General Contractor in

Stone, Brick, Cement,
Excavating, Building

Coke Ovens a Specialty

All work guaranteed
See me for Estimates

Coleman Liquor Store

In Your Trunk

snugly packed where its handy to get at is a good place to put a bottle of

Good Old Sherry

before leaving to take that trip.
If you want to add a bottle of Good Old Sherry to your Bouquet we can supply it. Our store is the precise place to get good liquors at. Prices are always reasonable.

W. EVANS

Wholesale Liquor Dealer

Saturday Specials

Spring Lamb
Spring Chicken
Fresh Turkey
Empire Creamery Butter
Fresh laid Eggs

P. Burns & Co. Limited

Coleman

Livery

Every attention given to travelers and the local public

Reliable Horses, Good Rigs

General Draying Business Done

Wm. Haley, Proprietor

For Sale

Have closed deal whereby I can sell 320 acres war grant $1.00 per acre.
Choose land any time up to end 1910.

CAPTAIN COOPER,
Box 412, Calgary, Alberta

Coleman Laundry

Goods called for and returned

E. C. GOOEY, Proprietor

Summit Lodge, No. 30

A. F. and A. M., G. R. A.

meets first Thursday in each month at 8 p.m. in the Masonic hall. All visiting brethren made welcome.

A. M. MORRISON, Sec.

Coleman Aero

1140, Fraternal

Order of Eagles

meets 2nd and last

Saturday monthly at 8:30.

Visiting members welcome.

H. GATE, Sec.

Coleman Lodge No. 36 meets every Monday at 8 p.m. Visiting brethren welcome.

H. CLAYTON, N.G. Sec.

Knights of Pythias, Castle

Hall, Sentinel Lodge

No. 25

Meets every alternate Saturday in I.O.O.F. hall

Visitors welcome

C.C. THOMAS HADNER

K of K & S, W. T. OWEN

Macleod Business Cards

DR. BRUCE, SURGEON-DENTIST

Office over Young's Drug Store

Special attention to preservation of teeth. The safest anaesthetic known to the profession

Visits Coleman monthly

CAMPBELL & FAWCETT

Barristers, Notary Publics

Office: Over Chow Sam's Restaurant

MONEY TO LOAN ON REAL ESTATE

COLIN MACLEOD

Solicitor

Barrister

Etc.

McKENZIE, McDONALD & WATT

Advocates, Notaries, Etc.

Office, Macleod, Branch at Claresholm

MONEY TO LOAN ON FARM PROPERTY

M. McKenzie, J. W. McDonald, J. R. Watt

DRAY LINE

We wish to inform the people of Coleman that we are prepared to do all kinds of draying at the shortest notice. We have some of the best horses in the country and other equipment is strictly first-class.

We solicit your patronage and guarantee satisfaction.

H. Villeneuve Proprietor

Yai Lee Co. Store Restaurant OPPOSITE OPERA HOUSE

Prepared to serve good meals
Meal Tickets, good for twenty one Meals

$5 00

W. J. Lighthart

Plastering
Brick Laying
Wood Fire Plastering a specialty
Work done with neatness and dispatch

LUMBERCOCK ALBERTA

Attend Blairmore every Thursday and Friday

TENDERS

Tenders will be received by the undersigned up to the 25th of June,

for a four roomed addition to Coleman

Public School. Tenders may be for the whole contract, or plumbing work and heating, or any part of the work.

Plans and specifications will be seen at Mr.

F. G. Graham's. Lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

Mail Us Your

Watch and Jewelry Repairing
Stone Setting and Engraving

No waiting and every Job guaranteed. 3 day time

Somerton Bros.

Frank, Alta., and Michel, B. C.

SEE OUR LINE OF RECONSTRUCTED STONES

Palmer & Thomson

BARRISTERS, ETC., NOTARIES

PUBLIC

Solicitors for the Canadian Bank of Commerce

PINCHER CREEK AND BLAIRMORE

Attend Blairmore every Thursday and Friday

thirty children, twenty sons and ten daughters, of whom there are twenty-one living, his eldest child, a son, being

53 years old, his youngest, a daughter of two years. Mr. Guy is a farmer and resides at Melfa station, a few miles south of here. He was 75 years of age on April 6 last. In 1855 he was married to Mary Ann Rayfield, a farmer's daughter, both being in their twenty-second year. To this union seven children were born. On September 12, 1883, he was joined in wedlock to Margaret Elizabeth Ayers, 21 years of age. To this union 18 children were born. His last marriage was to Lola Crockett, a girl of sixteen years, the bridegroom then being in his sixty-fifth year. To this union

five children have thus far been born

One of Mr. Guy's sons by his first marriage married a sister of his present wife, and a daughter by his second wife married a brother of his present wife. Despite the fact that

Mr. Guy has raised 21 children, he has only 23 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren, while 18 of his own children are married.

FOR SALE

Black Langshans, bred from stock from Brown and Williams Langshan specialists. Cockerels, $2.00 up; eggs,
$2.00 per dozen. Earl G. Cook,
Pincher Station, Alberta.

W. Valet. Apply to

J. H. FARMER, Frank.

FOR SALE

A Dwelling in Lot 13, Block D, at Slav Town, Coleman for $400. Owner,
B. Valet. Apply to

J. H. FARMER, Frank.

RAISED BIG FAMILY

Delmar, Del., June 17.—One of the best exponents of the anti-race suicide is John W. Guy, who is the father of